Agri- Processing Industry Labour Survey And Assessment: Participate To Be Seen & Heard

Alberta Agriculture and Forestry is undertaking an Agriculture Industry Labour Survey and Assessment.

The survey of primary producers and agri-food processors to determine their labour challenges and needs over the next 12 to 36 months is now accepting participants.

The results of the confidential survey and subsequent analysis will support the development of responsive programs to address industry's labour challenges.

As a valued industry partner, you are integral to the success of the industry. The survey can be accessed at https://www.forumresearchonline.ca/survey/intweb.dll/project/cawi//mdbl_cawi.

Alternately, members can call 1-866-508-1441 to complete a confidential survey.

64th AGM January 11-13, 2017

Planning is well underway for the 64th Annual General Meeting scheduled for January 11 to the 13th at the Westin hotel in Edmonton. The event will kick off with a manager's meeting on the morning of January 11th, with a business development workshop to follow on Wednesday afternoon.

Please note, that in response to a survey that was conducted at last year's AGM, the workshop has been moved to Wednesday afternoon. There will be two topics covered at the workshop, including a safety manual update aimed toward board members as well as staff. The second topic is still under construction.

Upon receiving many favorable reviews, the band, Base Line Union (also known as Route 66) from St. Paul has been booked as entertainment for the banquet.

Our guest speaker has built a multi-national food exporting company from the ground up in Saskatchewan.

This year, the Board of Director's has selected an awesome keynote speaker, which will be sure to motivate and entertain the attendees.

Also note that elections will take place in Regions 3, 5, 6, & 7. Having nominees for each region is important to be compliant with the Association's bylaws. (Otherwise, a bylaw update may be required)

Please stay tuned to your email inbox, as well as traditional mail box for further details.

Changes to Weed Seed Order: Questions and Answers on Weed Seeds Order, 2016

– The Canadian Food Inspection Agency (CFIA) has posted a series of questions and answers to its website regarding the Weed Seeds Order (WSO), 2016. The WSO is a ministerial order made under the Seeds Act and plays a critical role in preventing the introduction of new weed species into Canada by preventing or limiting the presence of weed species in seed sold in Canada. The new and updated WSO 2016 comes into force November 1, 2016. To read the questions and answers, visit the CFIA website at
